HISTORY

A group of business owners and managers have been meeting informally since July of 2004; By-laws and Articles of Incorporation for the Turtle Lake Area Chamber of Commerce were approved on April 6, 2005. Since that time the Chamber has grown over 50 current members and has started a variety of business related programs and/or events in the Turtle Lake Community.

TOP TEN REASONS TO JOIN THE CHAMBER:

1. Creates recognition of the Turtle Lake Area.
2. Promotes an energetic organization that is part of a progressive and growing community.
3. Focuses on the needs of local business.
4. Provides opportunities to promote and develop your business through cooperative advertising, training, and technical assistance.
5. Shows consumers your commitment to the community and is a recognized sign of business credibility.
6. Identifies and addresses matters of economic interest and concern to area businesses.
7. Serves as an inexpensive investment in the long term success of your business.
8. Fosters organized leadership among business owners.
9. Enhances the community to make it a better place to live, work and to conduct business.
10. Develops a foundation of strength where member ideas are embraced.
